About Peter Deunov:

Peter Deunov (also known as Beinsa Douno) was a spiritual teacher of rare attainment, who taught in Bulgaria during the first half of the twentieth century. He was born July 12, 1864 near the Black Sea. From 1888-1895 he studied medicine and theology in the USA. Returning to Bulgaria, he withdrew mainly into the mountains to prepare for his Divine work.

In 1897 he began teaching. In 1900 he set up the "Fellowship of Light," based on Divine Love, Wisdom, Truth, Justice, and Goodness. From then on he traveled throughout the country, teaching and healing, eventually establishing his base in Sofia, where a community gradually grew up around him and regular lectures were given.

He passed over on the 27th of December 1944 leaving a following of 40,000 people. Peter Deunov left an invaluable spiritual heritage in his numerous talks and lectures, prayers, formulas and songs, physical and breathing exercises, spiritual methods and practices for group work, self-development and conscious living.

Titles

The Wellspring of Good: The Last Words of the Master

Sacred Words of the Master: A Call to the Disciple

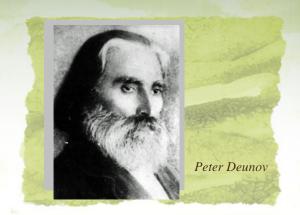

The Master Peter Deunov: His Life and Teaching

Woman—Source of Love and Life Reminiscences — Talks with the Master Health and Sickness

In the Kingdom of Living Nature Life After the Death of the Physical Body The Master Speaks

Prayers, Formulas and Songs

Dance of the Soul by Ardella Nathanael

The Master Speaks

Often we read to gather information, or to stimulate our minds, and yet the most important reading is for our souls. This is a book that I feel talks directly to our souls. There are many higher truths that our minds may have difficulty in grasping, but our souls can understand and so we learn on a higher level. - Anita Maritz

From the book: "Therefore, remember: You are soul, not body! You are a soul conceived at one time by the Divine Spirit, conceived in Love. At the present moment, your soul is already a bud, waiting to blossom into a flower."