

Suggested Interview Questions on 2012

- With all the predictions of cataclysm that haven't come true, why should we take this one seriously?
- On the other hand, some people are very fearful about what could happen in 2012. Do you think they are over-reacting?
- Why is it important that we know about these negative predictions? Won't that just make people fearful and give power to the prophecies?
- What do the ascended masters have to say about 2012, the good and the bad?
- Why should we believe what you have to say about the ascended masters and what they say?
- What are you and others who are part of your worldwide intentional community doing to get ready for 2012?
- You say there are five things you absolutely must do before 2012 to survive and thrive. What are they?
- What is the one thing you say people should never do else they become vulnerable to the worst?
- Nostradamus, Edgar Cayce, Mother Mary's appearances at Fatima, the book of Revelation in the Bible—there's a lot of other doomsday-like prophecies out there. Do they have anything to do with the year 2012?
- What do you think our spiritual posture should be towards any particular prophecy, good or bad?
- If 2012 comes and goes and nothing happens, can we start relaxing about the future?
