

Heart Streams

Beloved El Morya
David C. Lewis
July 8, 2008 3:17-4:24 pm MDT
Bozeman, Montana
Broadcast through the Wellspring Retreat 7:30-7:59 am MDT

On the Divine Import of the India Pilgrimage 88 Called to Attend and to Help Hold the Light for Southeast Asia

Intrepid Disciples of the Inner Word,

I come bearing a sacred scroll. It is a divine invitation personally autographed by a number of ascended masters who have been watching over your lifestreams for eons. It is a living document composed of fiery engrams of light that, when heard by your souls upon my reading, will afford you with the unique and once in a lifetime, truly once in a millennia, opportunity that few individuals upon most systems of worlds ever receive.

Beloved ones, I now untie, unroll and read this parchment, written by the hand of the Keeper of the Scrolls as dictated by the Sacred Lords—Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva:

A Sacred Invitation

Dearest One,

You are personally invited to attend a sacred pilgrimage to India, an ancient land known so well by your soul, with our amanuensis of light of The Hearts Center movement. This journey begins in the late summer of your year and is a celebration of the spiritual harvest of many seasons of your soul's cyclic comings and goings upon Earth. It is a trek for the intrepid who understand the nature of divine living and of the import of direct communion with us as spiritual aspirants, as pilgrims of the universe.

During your travels you will be given many keys to unlock new doors of consciousness, each leading to the possibility of a strengthening of your bonds to our hearts and your ties to the divine world. Through beautiful discourses by a score and more of ascended masters, Buddhas and cosmic beings, you will receive from each one a personal alchemical meal of light in the form of discourses, dictations, darshans—truly times of intimate heart contact with us and the enfoldment of your souls with our very beings.

We see eighty-eight coming on this journey, and we desire to welcome you, each one, to the Pure Land of the Buddhas, to welcome you to the ancient abode of the Eastern adepts who have been maintaining their meditation upon the One for ages, even before the creation of your planet. We would welcome you to our hearts—divine founts of love, wisdom and power—living light ensconced within and through the cosmic emanations of Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva where you will walk.

We will take your hand and lead you to Kailas. We will watch the rising sun with Gautama. We will initiate you again and again through a holy rite of passage into the heart of the Himalayas where Maitreya will sing to your soul and embrace you with a new garment of fire as he devours the subtle serpentine logic that has accumulated in your mind with his mystic smile. We will cajole you with the compassion and virya of the Compassionate One, lift you with the levity of Ling, help you to resolve your human issues with the sacred Issue and conveyance of Issa, the great Piscean Conqueror.

O awakening ones, each Buddhist rendering of fire will be a gift as a veil of light, even as veils of illusion are removed from you by our spiritual attendants. Each visit that you take to a sacred site will include a holy visitation by thousands of silent witnesses in the heaven world who will breathe the breath of Brahma, voice the word of Vishnu and chant and move in the rhythm of Shiva during his sacred dance. Each pranic anointing will include a sacred balm of beingness individualized for each one of you by your personal sponsoring master and spiritual mentor in communion with your Higher Self.

The divine memory of your spirit's eternal union with the all-abiding One will be gently played as the divine stylus etched upon your causal body, as we see manifest as a colorful cosmic diskette of light, its imprint [upon you] long before you embodied in form. The music of eternal worlds will be orchestrated by none other than the manus themselves, conducted magnificently by solar beings whose pulsing rhythms of dancing light from far-off worlds are just now beginning to arrive and penetrate the outer atmosphere of your world.

We convey now directly to your soul a certain preface of our appearance through our predisposition to see and know you fully risen in the light and free. And in these few moments of sacred silence you may witness the soundless sound of pure eternity within the core of Selfhood. [Thirty-three seconds of silence.]

Beloved ones, this is the content of the scroll. And I now offer your soul a replica of this scroll as your personal invitation from many friends of light to attend our Indian Pilgrimage. As practical masters we understand the human constraints upon our beloved ones on Earth. And yet we know that where there is God-desire at the center of being, all things are possible. So we urge each of you to consider our invitation and see how it may be possible for the full complement of eighty-eight to attend through a miracle manifestation of cosmic givingness on the part of all within this activity of light.

Some among you may consider sponsoring others to attend through a pilgrimage scholarship fund that we ask our planners to initiate specifically for this event. In each and every case, those who donate toward others' attendance will receive on the inner a just portion of that sacred anointing by the hand of the Eastern adepts, their sacrificial gifts providing the open doorway for that conveyance.

Now, blessed ones, let me tell you what this pilgrimage will mean for the Earth. The light that we intend to anchor through your physical presence, one with us, will stabilize the area of Southeast Asia such that the greater plans for violence, terror, war, chaos and insanity will be thwarted and consumed. It will allow an army of cosmic beings entrée to your world through the emanation of the eternal frequencies of the cosmic AUM that you will witness tangibly. It will also be a landmark statement to the Lords of Karma that a holy band of our intrepid ones has set their seal upon India once more, creating a new bridge of light between the East and the West that you may then traverse daily in your ongoing meditations with us. For having come physically to our home of light, a living trail of the very substance of your soul and your spirit emanations will be left in the ethers. And this you may continue to breathe and to focus light through wherever you are, blessed hearts.

Each night during the pilgrimage your soul will take flight to Darjeeling, and you will receive a continuous outpouring of inner darshan and blessing from us in your finer bodies that is just as important for your soul's eternal flight as what you will receive in the outer. For we will be working with all of your spiritual bodies and conforming them to the one eternal body of Brahma, Vishnu and Shiva who will from that day forward be manifest tangibly within your heart if you fully accept it. This inner teaching, this initiation of which I have spoken will only be given to those attending the pilgrimage or those who have sponsored others to attend.

Our careful planners have made our itinerary known to you on The Hearts Center's website. But to date, less than a third of those whom we have called on the inner have yet responded fully. Thus, I come to each one of you from Darjeeling and call to you again with Chananda at my side. To those who would be God-taught, we offer our heart, head and hand once more.

This is a sacred activity of light, blessed ones. And as an addendum to my message, though he would not have it revealed outwardly, I reveal in this hour after the publication of my Treasury of Spiritual Quips, that this amanuensis, David Christopher Lewis, was embodied as my son Isaac. It is now for you to discern why this activity of light was foreseen long ago and why you have caught the fire in this hour and must now fully rise into the God-estate of your own pure beingness, living in the heart of God forevermore.

I am El Morya Khan. Come to India to receive our anointing and blessing. I will welcome you with a holy kiss, with a sure handshake and with a twinkle in my eye, knowing you as God knows you. I thank you.

[Messenger's comments: Thank you, blessed hearts. Thank you, John. Thank you, everyone, for bearing witness to Morya's fiery presence. I am humbled, completely humbled by the master [and] his light.

As we were praying before this dictation, he flashed to my mind a visual that we can use to precipitate the alchemy of 88 going. And that is the double dorje which looks like a cross but is composed of two dorjes crossed over each other but as one. So there are four points for the four directions. And there are two double dorjes and they form, each one, an eight spiritually. So it is an eight vertically and an eight horizontally—the infinity sign horizontally and the infinity sign turned on its end between heaven and earth vertically.

And you can visualize this over the map of India as the diamond conveyance of vajra fire. It is the signet of Amoghasiddhi. Some of you may even have the double dorje on your altars. The master said it is spiritually legal for you to wield the double dorje if you have balanced over 50% of your karma whereas previously that dispensation was reserved for a messenger. But spiritually if you have qualified through this balancing of karma, you can wield the sacred dorje, or the double dorje—or as I would term it, the “double diamond dorje,” delivering the diamond thunderbolt of fire into the earth—and see the 88 attending.

If we can pull this off, blessed ones, through your sacred givingness, your constancy, your prayers, your sacrifice—and for some who have greater resources, [the] sponsoring [of] others—I truly believe this will be another great shift for the planet and, as Morya has said, will stabilize Southeast Asia and prevent a heap of troubles in that region.

God bless you. Have a wonderful day. I look forward to hearing the replays from the conference, especially for those who have not been able to attend either physically or on line. And I will stay in touch. God bless you. Have a great day. Bye bye.

Copyright © 2008. The Hearts Center®. All rights reserved. All messages released through The Hearts Center are copyrighted, but we encourage you to print and share them with discretion with heartfriends throughout the world. Bracketed words have been inserted for greater clarity with the approval of the dictating master. Short excerpts may be quoted as long as full credit is given to the author. Contact us at www.theheartcenter.org. Correspondence and contributions may be sent to P.O. Box 277, Livingston, Montana 59047 USA.