

Join our Meru University Team!

Are you exhilarated by the teachings of the ascended masters? Do you desire to support in very practical ways the creation and presentation of our courses? Would you enjoy the vital work of building relationships with our students through phone and email communication? Then join the Meru U team!

You will be volunteering as a staff member of a most unique university, working with the ascended masters, David, and dedicated heartfriends to provide the energetic support required for the production of the many courses requested by heaven yearly. Yes, you will help these courses, workshops, free classes manifest right here on earth—courses that are drenched with the flame of the sponsoring masters, brimming with exciting perspectives and innovative approaches to our spiritual path; courses that are offered in various formats to meet personal requirements and schedules.

Our Volunteer Opportunities

Fun high-tech and low-tech volunteer opportunities await! Volunteer to assist our course managers and other Meru U staff and earn participation scholarships. Are you organized, detail-oriented? Do you possess basic computer skills? Then this is a perfect opportunity for your gifts!

Here are the volunteer assignments...
