We affirm and accept the divine purpose of this pilgrimage, including the following details, needs and hopes in its design:

- Safe and on-time travel for all pilgrims from their homes to Paris, arriving on October 20 or before; from Paris to Vienna on Friday, October 23; from Vienna to the United States or Sweden on October 27 or thereafter.
- The protection and perfect health of the messenger, the pilgrims and their families.
- The overshining and attunement of our travel agent, Dennis Ross, and his perfect vision and accomplishment of all the details and arrangements required to make this pilgrimage a total success.

- The harmonious interaction and complete cooperation of our pilgrims with the staff of the Hotel Favorita in Vienna, the Hotel Mercure De Pantin in Paris, all bus drivers, guides, airport personnel and operators of public transportation.
- Wholesome, delicious food, comfortable lodging and ideal weather.
- The perfect functioning and protection of all audio-visual equipment and the divine heart-mind connection of those who touch and use this equipment.
- The balancing of personal karma and the acceleration of the consciousness of each pilgrim.
- The clearing of the darkest and most problematic records within Europe.
- The acceptance and affirmation of a new culture of divine love within Europe, a culture of freedom and liberty, the right to life, and divinely inspired leadership in all branches of government, business and education.
- The expansion and acceleration of the heart chakra of Europe.

And we agree together here upon Earth that the 2009 Hearts Center Pilgrimage to Europe is heavenly, joyous and victorious in every way.

(Roar and beat your chest)!

God is in charge of the Earth today! (3x)

So be it! It is done! We are eternally grateful!
