

Dear Nada

(Ruby Love Verse)

Example of support and strength, of selfless love so rare.

No need had you for glory, fame.

Your life was lived in prayer.

Your brothers and your sisters never knew you had agreed
To flood their hearts with ruby love so that each would succeed.

Chorus:

Dear Nada, our Nada, come teach us today

Of service and Ruby Love, purple, gold ray.

Oh, inner flame, blaze now! Expand in your name.

Our Christhood, our Buddhahood, dear Nada, we claim.

(Golden Wisdom Verse)

An advocate for truth were you, defender of the poor.

With wisdom's tongue expressed the Law

that freed men's hearts to soar.

A listening ear, discerning heart, your words that penetrate
Through all illusion, all that's false, our souls to liberate.

Chorus:

Dear Nada, our Nada, come teach us today

Of service and Ruby Love, purple, gold ray.

Oh, inner flame, blaze now! Expand in your name.

Our Christhood, our Buddhahood, dear Nada, we claim.

(Deep Purple Power Verse)

And now you reign as chohan fair, inspiring us to see

The miracle of serving life. It is our reason to be.

Each thought, each word, each act of love—

Our gift of greatest worth—

Contains the power of mercy to create a heaven on earth.

Chorus:

Dear Nada, our Nada, come teach us today

Of service and Ruby Love, purple, gold ray.

Oh, inner flame, blaze now! Expand in your name.

Our Christhood, our Buddhahood, dear Nada, we claim.
