

Hymn to Faith

O Faith, with all the archeiai,
We see your angels fill the sky.
With Michael, blest archangel true,
God's sons and daughters look to you.
O fill us now with grace divine,
Protection's light our world refine.

O Faith, we see your diamond shield,
Blue-lightning angels with you wield.
Belief in God with hope and love,
Your cosmic light flows from above.
Perfection's glory is your sign;
O radiate God-power divine.

O Faith, with Hope and Charity,
Inspire mankind with clarity.
Blest Micah's banner, unity,
Unfurled in cosmic harmony.
O Princess Faith, we look to thee.
Now raise all souls and set them free.

Dear Michael, Faith, our victory's nigh,
We see your legions fill the sky.
Though Armageddon's in full swing,
Our voices rise; with you we sing.
Your blue-flame swords and shields we bear.
We stand with you, archangels fair.

Eternal Father-Mother light,
We pray for Faith and Michael bright.
Renew their strength and spirits, too.
We send our love, archangels blue.
O Lord of all the worlds sublime,
All praise, thanksgiving, glory thine.
