

Love Song to Sanat Kumara and Lady Master Venus

Sanat Kumara, Savior and our dearest friend,
We give to you our love and praise your name!
Because of you we live and work and strive to know,
The heart of God within, the three-fold flame.
You came when all seemed lost for our dear planet Earth.
And brought our teachers, masters, blazing Sons!
To help each one remember who we really are:
Bone of your bone, flesh of your flesh,
A family, One.

Your ancient rescue mission now becomes our own.
With burning hearts we, too, search and we yearn,
To magnetize our brothers, sisters, by true love,
That all may know the way back Home again.
Dear Lady Venus, Mother from the Star of Love,
You hold the balance as we strive below.
We feel your overwhelming care, your warm embrace.
We're coming home, but not alone.
Your love we'll share.
