

Peace and Praise

Now hear us singing our Maker's praise
As we our brimming chalice raise.
Creation echoes with one voice;
Come nature, mankind, come rejoice!

O, Holy Spirit, our conscience shield,
Thine omnipresence be love revealed;
That we may all in fellowship live,
And to each other mercy give.

May all upon life's battleground
Be in the number God's peace hath found;
Lay down their weapons, keep no score,
Victors in love forever more.
