

Sanat Kumara, Our Lord of Love

Sanat Kumara, we now praise your name
For bringing earth your light and vict'ry flame.
Now in your honor let all souls arise,
Singing our gratitude to the skies.
For courage so complete, steadfast and true,
We send our deep, reverent love to you.

Our noble Regent Lord, compassion's call
Brought you to earth to raise the flame in all.
When darkness threatened life on Terra's sphere
Your mission kept love's vict'ry flame here.
Let song and legend praise your mighty pow'r –
The power of love to heal earth this hour.

Dear Lady Venus, Mother Flame, we send
From our hearts ruby roses without end.
For keeping Hesperus' home fires burning bright,
A jewel constant through Terra's plight,
Holding a balance real with our dear Lord,
We sing your praise now in sacred word.

Sanat Kumara, to your mission true
We consecrate our lives and strength anew,
To see a golden age of vict'ry won,
Raising our Terra unto the Sun.
O, Lord of Love, your journey from afar
Lighted earth's way to be Freedom's Star.
