Thus blessed ones, we prepare for the coming of Alpha.... What will each of you sacrifice of yourselves, of your past indiscretions and of that which is dear not to the divine Self of yourself but to your lower nature, in order to accommodate the great light of this Solar Lord coming to the earth? What will you lay upon the altar of your own God-consciousness in terms of sacrificial giving in order that the greater light of this being may blaze forth across this earth and this galaxy to sustain the point of contact with the Sun behind the Sun of the First Cause?

... Thus, take stock of all that transpires in your world on a daily basis—how you use your time, your energies and the frequencies from your Presence sent forth through your crystal cord unto you.... Therefore enter into a self-assessment before the hour of summer solstice, for even now, blessed ones, the initiations of personal and planetary God-government are being released in spirals and cycles.

Offerings to Beloved Alpha

Beloved Heartfriends,

As we anticipate and prepare for the momentous coming of beloved Alpha to Freedom 2007, we are asking you to send any suggestions, inspirations as to ways we may celebrate and honor his Presence with us. If you are prompted to create a song or a poem or a decree to Alpha, to research what we already know about him so that it may be presented by the messenger before his dictation or if you have suggestions of ways the entire community might be preparing for this event, send your comments and offerings to hearts.center@gmail.com.

The Vera Choir is Coming, Too!

We recently received confirmation that the Vera Choir will be with us both Thursday and Friday during the Freedom Conference! They will not only be sharing their wonderful choral music in concert on Friday as scheduled but also giving presentations concerning their community practices and rituals!

New Broadcast Policy

As you know, The Hearts Center's plans and projects for 2007 are exciting and plentiful. There is so much that the masters want accomplished. Your generous donations have continued to allow us to provide many free services: our daily morning rosary, daily prayer sessions and cascading vigils, Sunday services and holiday services; audio recordings of many prayers sessions and events; access to over one thousand HeartStreams in transcript and audio format; our newsletter; promotional events at conferences; and scholarship opportunities.

Historically, and we do have a little bit of history in The Hearts Center, the broadcast costs of major events have joyfully been absorbed by the movement and by those in attendance. However, from this conference forward, there will be a change. So that we may continue to offer the many other free services which we have all enjoyed, broadcast registration fees will be charged in order to participate in our quarterly conferences via internet.

Freedom 2007 broadcast days will include June 30th through July 5th. Registration by credit card will be available on our website providing registrants with a broadcast entry password. The broadcast registration fee for Freedom 2007 will be as follows:

$150 for the entire seven-day event or $40 per day, per person
Saturday evening, June 30th, is a free broadcast

We are happy that the technology is available to enable you to participate over the internet, and we look forward to your participation wherever you are. But we so hope that you will be able to be with us physically, for this is what the masters hope for you. Here are their pleas to us regarding our attendance for the coming of Alpha during Freedom 2007 from recent excerpts:

Think of what it means to the physical earth to have the presence of this one with you. Would you be there to help anchor this great light or would you be somewhere else oblivious to his Word manifest in that hour of July 5th? You may choose either way. But for me, Lanello, I will be there, sitting in the front row, eager to hear the conveyance of his heart, his mind and his great field of consciousness pouring forth to the earth the cosmic radiance that he will deliver.

--Lanello, May 24, 2007

I announce to you that Alpha and Omega will speak to earth and its evolutions during the Freedom Conference 2007. And I admonish all worth the salt of the savor of their own being to come and be where the master comes, to sit at the feet of these, the highest representatives of the Godhead to this system of worlds. For in the very anchoring [of] their presence upon earth, they will deliver this New Blue fire.

--El Morya, January 11, 2007

July 5th will be a holy day for the earth and her evolutions! And for those of you who desire the full empowerment that Alpha will deliver, be there!

--Master Omraam, May 10, 2007

...This is the one conference per year that you must come to, that you must make amends within your own being...to be there with us... for the release of these dictations, and especially in this year the coming of beloved Alpha! If you could truly see and know what it is that will manifest for the earth when this great Lord and Solar God-being comes to the planet earth, then you would make every effort to be there, blessed ones....

--Godfre, May 14, 2007

Early Bird Fee Extended to June 17th!

With God all things are possible. If there was ever a time to work our alchemies with beloved Saint Germain, this is it! We are extending the early bird fee deadline an extra week to June 17th with the hope that this will be of assistance in making your commitment to attend this most important conference of the year. Thank you again for all of your sacrifices and service to the masters through this movement. We hope to see you at Freedom 2007!
