

The Hearts Center

EVENTS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

June 14, 2007

Dear Heartfriends,

We have a little less than two weeks before our FREEDOM 2007 conference begins! Just this week Lanello challenged us to discern how we can assist The Hearts Center Council; whereby you take to heart the words we have given, discerning how you can assist, what I call this day “the staff”, of The Hearts Center, including the messenger and those on the council in completing certain assignments that must be fulfilled before the Freedom Conference even begins. He said this, knowing full well how busy we all are, yet with the understanding that we can accomplish much more than we think, for with God, all things are possible.

One important way in which you could assist the staff and the masters is supporting the Events Scholarship Fund. We have a number of heartfriends coming from foreign countries this year. These souls are on fire for the masters and The Hearts Center! These individuals as well as a few from within the U.S need financial assistance to attend FREEDOM 2007. How to support these souls in on the minds of The Hearts Center council and we encourage you, as you are able to make a financial commitment to your brothers and sisters so desirous of attending this summer’s conference.

Please take time to meditate with your Presence and determine if it is appropriate for you to financially assist your fellow heartfriends on the path. If so, you can go onto the website and click on the Support Us link. That will take you to the donations page, where you can make your donation, selecting the Events Scholarship Fund. Another option is that of writing a check. Make your check out to: The Hearts Center and note on it Events Scholarship Fund and mail it to:

Bless you and thank you for your support of your fellow brothers and sisters on the path. And a special thank you from the members of The Hearts Center council. Please know that your contribution is tax deductible.

AOV,
The Hearts Center’s Scholarship Subcommittee
