

Sacred Events and Journeys

Four major conferences are held annually near the solstices and equinoxes. When we come together with a high spiritual intention and focus, our prayer work during these events multiplies the action of God's light for the blessing, healing and transformation of our planet.

At the direction of the ascended masters, we travel to sacred sites around the world such as the Far East, Egypt, Mexico, Brazil and Europe, primarily to anchor God's light and to bless life. For the intrepid ones, these sacred journeys have been joyous, invigorating and rewarding beyond measure.

*High above you now glows
the most beautiful and glorious manifestation of your own God-self, blazing more brightly than ten thousand suns. And if you truly believe in the ability of this personalized God-reality to be for you a never-ending source of spiritual nourishment and upliftment, then it will be so!*

Thus, I come to clear the way for the full realization within you of the highest elements of your Godhood. . . .

The Hearts Center™

Reconnect with Your Higher Self

Your Buddha Nature

*The goal of the ascended masters through The Hearts Center is to help us reconnect to our own divine source.
The heart is the nexus for the flow of light through our entire body, just as our divine source sustains the flow of life for all creation.*

Our Mission

The Hearts Center is a new opportunity for spiritual seekers to receive up-to-date inspiration from the ascended masters whose caring and love are tangible in their worded releases. It is not so much an outer organization but a movement of hearts that are united in love-wisdom to pursue their own individual calling and mission with divine abandon, full of expectancy and with a heart attuned to divine ideals and holy purpose.

HeartStreams™

These messages from the ascended masters are shared freely with all who visit our website. The masters, as well as our members, see these messages as the essential component of The Hearts Center, a boon for individual soul freedom and the healing of the heart of the world.

Divine revelation never stops, and so God has sent his emissaries, messengers and prophets throughout history and in various cultures to assist the ongoing evolution of all souls. David

Christopher Lewis, founder of The Hearts Center, receives timely messages and teachings from the ascended masters that address the spiritual path and offer solutions to the problems of our times.

The Ascended Masters

The ascended masters are our elder brothers and sisters who have achieved mastery over time and space and serve as our friends, mentors and guides. The true teachings taught in the mystery schools of the Universal White Brotherhood are now being revealed to the outer consciousness of mankind so that many more may use and apply the science of Spirit to create a world of freedom and enlightenment whereby all are honored and all have opportunity for growth.

Meru University

Meru University, the adult educational component of The Hearts Center, is a modern-day mystery school that facilitates the spiritual development of the soul. The university is dedicated to the sharing of ageless wisdom and progressive revelation through courses, seminars, workshops, publications and projects. These courses assist seekers in understanding the the ancient and modern teachings of East and West.

The Community

The masters teach us that our soul may gain greater understanding by working in cooperation with others; we have the added benefit of the consciousness and striving of others to increase our own understanding of the path.

Join Us!

Whether we participate virtually on The Hearts Center broadcasts at www.TheHeartsCenter.org or physically at weekend events, quarterly conferences or spiritual pilgrimages, we share the joy of relating with friends of light from around the world. Truly, relationships on the path are key to giving our life greater meaning and joy.

Violet Laser Light™

Through the Cosmic Violet Laser Light, Saint Germain's gift of spiritual transmutation, we can re-experience the Higher Self by the dissolving of the unreality that has surrounded the core of our identity. We can also attune to the higher frequencies of sacred alchemy and apply the cosmic principles of light in all ways in our life.
