New Year's Eve—a Special Night of Dining for Conferees

Conserve the sacred space being created around and within you by your participation in the conference and “dine in” with us at the Austin Centre. A catered candlelight buffet, prepared by our Texas heartfriends, awaits your dining pleasure for just $11 prepaid with your online registration in our store.

Enjoy a dinner of traditional New Year Texan and Mexican dishes, musical entertainment and traditional year-end festivities. Breathe in the magical atmosphere and prepare to enter the stillness of midnight with its release of magnificent light through the presence of Gautama Buddha.

Your advanced dinner reservations may be made online or by emailing austin@heartscenter.org before Dec. 30th. If emailing us, send your name, the number of reservations and payment type. New Year's Eve dinner reservations will be accepted at the door at $13 a plate as you complete your free conference registration.

New Year's Day—a Hearty Chef's Soup and Salad Buffet Lunch and Saturday, Jan. 2nd—Buffet Hot Dinner

Austin Centre's own catering service creates delicious and nutritious buffet meals with healthy, organic and appetizing food selections, using the finest locally-grown produce and ingredients. The New Year's Day lunch and Saturday dinner buffets are priced at $11 per plate. Again, a reservation is required. Email austin@heartscenter.org or go online to our store.

New Year's Day Dinner and Saturday Lunch—On the Town

There are many wonderful restaurants on Congress Avenue, First Street and throughout downtown Austin, including the Buenos Aires Café, 2414 South 1st Street, Austin, 78704.

A local Austin newspaper recent review: "Lovely, lovely, lovely! A real South Austin gem, Buenos Aires plates up some scrumptious fare that will challenge and inspire."
