Thursday, October 13

Notes: Discussion and consensus building: Collaboration regarding goals, strategies, initiatives and activities, requests to masters for possible dispensations

Before we have a darshan with the masters about our recommendations, requests for support and special dispensations, we should collectively come up with a set of global initiatives and thrusts that we all agree on across these various topic areas, as would occur in governmental Congress or Senate. (This summarizes ideas from the darshan with David)
