

The Hearts Center™
Brazil Pilgrimage/Easter Conference
April 5-13, 2007

Your Reservation

Beloved ones, we are indeed desirous of anchoring light as a portal to South America. This will become clear to you after the Luxor trip, wherein a triangle of light will be established between focuses at Luxor, the Grand Teton and the light in South America from Lake Titicaca.

Set aside your funds, if necessary, especially those of you who are not able to come to Luxor, and come with me! I need twenty-four, blessed ones. I cannot guarantee that there will be a later journey to South America to visit the seven nations because of what is coming upon the earth during the battle of Armageddon.

Bahia guesthouse <http://www.bahia-guesthouse.com>.

The destination of this pilgrimage is the Bahia guesthouse about one hour's drive from Salvador, Brazil. The Bahia guesthouse is a small retreat, very private and close to the ocean. It's privately owned and can accommodate a maximum of 24 guests. Their website provides additional details.

The masters selected this retreat as their site for the 2007 Easter Conference as well as a point from which the spiritual work necessary for South American can be accomplished.

Passport

The first item to consider for the pilgrimage is your passport. You must have a passport with six months validity beyond the date of your travel. If you do not have a passport, now is the time to secure one. And if you do have a current passport, check that your passport will be valid through October 13, 2007.

Visa

U.S. citizens are required to secure a visa prior to departure for Brazil. There is a $100, non-refundable visa processing fee, plus a $10 service charge by the Brazilian Embassy. There are also a number of Brazilian Consulates within the U.S. In applying for your visa, you must make application with the Embassy or Consulate having jurisdiction for your state. This information can be found on the Brazilian Embassy website:

Immunizations

There are no "shots" required for entering Brazil from the United States.

Cancellation

Tours or pilgrimages such as this pilgrimage to Brazil, typically require a substantial amount of money down many months prior to departure. To make this pilgrimage, and all pilgrimages sponsored by The Hearts Center, available to the maximum number of Heartfriends, The Hearts Center only asks for payment when it is due the airlines and hotels. Thus, if some unfortunate situation necessitates your canceling after your payments are made, the likelihood of The Hearts Center returning your money is minimal. The Hearts Center will work with you, but makes no guarantees on refunds. It is highly recommended that you explore "trip cancellation insurance." There are many reasonable options to choose from on the internet.

Secure your space

Your reservation is what guarantees you a space on this pilgrimage. It can also set the matrix for your alchemy. It is to your advantage to make your reservation as early as possible and definitely by February 5, 2007.
