From the Queen of the Angels

Mother Mary's messages are of great relevance in these challenging times. She calls us to prayer, holiness and reflection on our inner lives. In each message, she lifts us up in Spirit and encourages us with her loving immaculate heart and perfect vision to try to see life from a higher perspective and with a more compassionate and loving attitude toward all. Her teachings open the door to transforming our lives and world.

“Balance is the key for you today. When you stay fully centered in the balanced flame of love, wisdom and power, nothing can move you from that state wherein you hear the voices of angels and the whisperings and musings of God's heart.”

“Unconditional love is the love of the Mother, born from the heights of the melting snows that course and egress through the many rivulets and waterways of God's consciousness—namely all of His creatures throughout His vast creation.”

“When you know the Source, you shall know that there is always enough abundance for all, as the eternal cycling of the Mother's outpicturing of the Father's gift are outplayed through all of nature's majesty.”
